

WELCOME TO 38 BARRACKS

★
A FOOD JOURNAL WRITTEN IN MEMORIES , NOT INK

★ They say a soldier never really retires he just finds a new mission. For Colonel A.K. Bakshi, that mission was to create a place that feels like home. After 51 years of service and journeys across India, he carried back memories, recipes, and meals shared with fellow soldiers from hot curries in Ladakh to quiet cups of chai on duty nights.

★ When he retired, he transformed those memories into 38 Barracks a space designed to resemble his own home, filled with medals, journals, and stories from his years in uniform. Every dish here comes from his food journal, inspired by India's regions and the brotherhood of the forces.

★ At 38 Barracks, you're not a guest, you're family. Because one place doesn't just serve food, they serve warmth, stories, and the feeling of home.

THE REGIMENT MENU

THE STORY BEHIND BAMBOO BIRYANI

A TRADITION BORN IN THE WILDERNESS, PERFECTED BY TIME.

BORN IN THE WILD

In the dense jungles of the Northeast, resource was scarce and missions were critical. Our forefathers discovered that bamboo – strong, green, and abundant – could be more than just shelter. It could be a kitchen.

Thus began a tradition.

A TRADITION WE CARRY FORWARD

Green bamboo is filled with fragrant basmati rice, tender meat, aromatic spices and slow-cooked over open fire. The bamboo locks in moisture and smoke, infusing every grain with a unique, earthy flavour.

Today, we serve Bamboo Biryani as a tribute to our legacy – cooked by tradition, served with respect.

COOKED BY TRADITION.
SERVED WITH RESPECT.
